

JOE BIGGIE

Vice President of Strategy and Development Just Brakes

Joe Biggie began his career in automotive aftermarket repair with Ford Motor Company in 1972 in the parts distribution accounting department. Following his tenure with Ford, Biggie was the general manager of an American Part Systems distribution center before becoming an independent consultant within the automotive aftermarket repair industry.

In 1986 Biggie joined Just Brakes where he oversaw the day to day operations at eight locations. Today Biggie oversees all strategic planning and development for the company.

Just Brakes is a privately-owned brake specialty repair company that opened its first store in Bryan, Texas, in 1980. Since then, Just Brakes has expanded to over 160 stores located in seven states and 14 major markets with approximately 950 employees. The company performs brake repairs on over 340,000 vehicles annually and plans to continue its expansion to additional major U.S. cities. Just Brakes is a member of the National Council of Better Business Bureaus, as well as the Automotive Maintenance and Repair Association (AMRA) and the Motorist Assurance Program (MAP).

With over 35 years experience in all aspects of automotive aftermarket repair, Biggie brings a wealth of knowledge and leadership to the Just Brakes family.

Biggie is a member of Vistage International, a group which offers a unique combination of resources for accelerating CEO and key executive business performance.

During his free time, Biggie enjoys spending time with his family, fishing and boating.
