

SCOT MANNA

Owner and Lead Technician
MB Automotive Inc.

Scot Mann currently owns and operates MB Automotive, a four bay service facility in the northwest suburbs of Chicago. He also develops and delivers technical training classes for several training providers including the State of Illinois, as well as ASA and Auto Value\Bumper to Bumper. Manna has also taught for several local community colleges and has delivered presentations at training conferences throughout the country.

Among his achievements, Manna was named Gates\ASE Master with L1 Technician of the Year for 2009. He competed in and was awarded the title North American Technician of the Millennium in 2006 and North Central Region Technician of the Millennium in 2001 by AC Delco. Manna was named ASA\ASE Technician of the Year in 2001

Manna enjoys traveling with his wife of 23 years, Lore, who also provides huge assistance by keeping the books for MB Automotive. His hobbies include golf, reading, and cruising the local car shows in his 2006 Corvette. Manna lives in Mount Prospect IL with his wife and son, Christopher.