

JOHN A. WARZECHA

Senior Vice President
Franchise Business Development
Midas, Inc.

John A. Warzecha, 61, is senior vice president for franchise business development of Midas, Inc., with headquarters in Itasca, Ill.

He joined Midas in 1973, as district manager in Detroit, Mich. In 1977, he moved to Midas headquarters, then in Chicago, as manager of dealer development. He became a regional manager for franchise operations in Atlanta in 1978, and returned to Chicago as vice president of Midas Realty Corporation in 1985.

From 1987 until 1989, Warzecha served as president of Sparks Tune-Up Company. He rejoined Midas in 1989, as vice president and general manager of Midas' company-owned stores.

From 1993 until 2009, Warzecha was senior vice president for franchise operations and sales.. He was named to his current post in January 2009.

A native of Michigan, Warzecha holds a bachelor of business management degree from Northwood University and a master of business administration degree from Eastern Michigan University.